

Truro CHOIR

our purpose

The Truro Choir exists as a community of worshippers. Young and old, trained and untrained, with people from all tribes and tongues, generations, races, backgrounds, and skill levels—redeemed and joined together to the praise of God’s glorious grace. If you love to sing, we would love to have your gifts contributing to this ministry. We long to display a microcosm of God’s ransomed people, joined together as the worshipping body of Christ.

This choir also exists as a community of worship leaders. Psalm 34:3 says: “Oh magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together!” Those of us up front are not there to perform or impress. We’re there to invite. So if you have a love for Jesus, a heart for worship, and a desire to invite others to magnify the Lord with you, then please consider using those gifts with us. We’ll make you feel right at home.

Truro CHOIR

KICK-OFF WEEKEND 2019

The choir will set aside Fri, Sep 6 (evening) and Sat, Sep 7 (morning-afternoon) for our kick-off weekend here at Truro. Come for a wonderful time of food, laughter, worship, and singing.

WEEKLY SERVICES

The choir helps lead worship at our 9:00 and 11:15 am services. Rehearsal for the first service is at 8:15 am, and for the second service at 10:40 am. Members sing at either one service or both, depending on their schedule and other commitments.

SPECIAL SERVICES

The choir helps lead worship for choral evensong, Christmas Eve (Tue, Dec 24, 2019), Ash Wednesday (Feb 26, 2020), Maundy Thursday (Apr 8, 2020), and Good Friday (Apr 9, 2020).

At the end of the ministry year, the choir will present a night of worship on Sun, June 14, at 5:00 pm. These special services occasionally call for an additional rehearsal.

WEEKLY REHEARSALS

Members of the choir commit to attend rehearsals as faithfully as possible. Rehearsals give us an opportunity to worship and pray together, to prepare Sunday's music, and to grow as a community.
