

Questions for Discussion

1. What aspects of our culture enslave us—what do we need freedom from?
2. What gets in the way of your ability to give of yourself? What constraints to freedom do you experience?
3. “Even after the fall, love didn’t vanish from the world—because it can never be eradicated. Generations after sin entered the world, Christ came to redeem it—bearing witness to the irreversible love of God first expressed in creation.” (TOBLS p. 33) Do you agree that “love can never be eradicated,” that it is “irreversible”? Have you experienced a time when you thought all hope was lost—in a situation, in a relationship—and yet the power of love broke through?