Everyone Can Support Alpha

Beginning Fri, Jan 12 | 7:00 pm | Undercroft

PRAY—When Alpha goes well, inevitably it is because Truro has prayed. Will you pray for those who come on Alpha this Winter? Will you pray for people to receive the Love of God in their exploration of life, faith, and meaning?

INVITE—You can also pray for those you might be able to invite! Truro's spirit is one of hospitality, drawing people into the love and community of Jesus. That doesn't happen without your invitations. Who is God calling you to invite to Alpha? Anyone can join within the first three weeks: Jan 12, 19, and 26.

Doing Rooted? Register Today!

Beginning Fri, Jan 12 | 7:00 pm | Undercroft

Rooted is a 10-week discipleship experience designed to create new community groups that continue meeting after Rooted is over. During Rooted, you will find daily readings, weekly discussion topics, and three interactive experiences outside of regular group time, making Rooted a high-commitment, high-reward experience. If you are looking to get connected with a community group or go deeper in your faith, or you have already done Alpha, this could be for you! Because there are course materials, advance registration is required, so please do that today.

i Registration and more info is at TruroAnglican.com/Rooted. Contact Hannah King with questions at HKing@TruroAnglican.com.

Learn to Share the Power of God's Word Through Storytelling

Sat, Jan 20 | 2:00-6:00 pm | Location TBD

Registration + Info at bit.ly/Storytelling2018

You are invited to join Jim and Janet Stahl to be trained in Bible Storytelling.

If you want something important to stick in people's memories, tell them a story. Jesus often spoke through meaningful stories to those he encountered, drawing crowds yearning to hear more, intriguing both the curious and the skeptical. Who wouldn't like to become such a captivating storyteller? Bible storytelling is as much about the storyteller being challenged by the story and by learning to tell it as it is a tool for ministry and sharing the Good

Alpha

Alpha begins this Fri, Jan 12 at 7:00 pm. Details are at truroanglican.com/alpha.

Support Alpha

COME—Come with your friend(s) who you have invited! It can be intimidating to step onto a church campus for the first time if you're all alone. You can join your friends for the first night to make sure they feel comfortable and as welcome as they truly are. And if you've never come on Alpha, this might be your time!

i RSVP at TruroAnglican.com/Alpha. E-mail Michael King at MKing@TruroAnglican.com with any questions.

Alpha—Slow Down like a Disciple

One of the clearest directives Jesus gave the church is to “make disciples” (Matt. 28:19). An invitation to Alpha is the best way we know for someone to begin being a disciple. But we cannot make disciples without first being disciples. And what do we see Jesus' disciples doing? The same thing anyone in any kind of relationship does: spending time with with the other person, making the space to grow in their understanding of this person—Jesus.

This Winter, let the Alpha team take care of you and your friends for nine Friday nights. Come SLOW DOWN and spend time exploring Jesus and what it could look like to begin or refresh a relationship with him. No matter where you are on your faith journey (no faith, Christian faith, another faith), you are invited to join us. YOU are invited to slow down like a disciple.

Bible Storytelling

News. This training is open to everyone and is encouraged for teachers, parents, and evangelists.

Jim and Janet Stahl have been coaching Christians around the world for 10 years in building their skills as Bible storytellers, using their own languages and communication styles.

Truro and TIPS will be using storytelling as a way to communicate the gospel through “The House,” a new missional church accessible to people from foreign backgrounds which will start this year. If you want to learn more about The House, you can join us on Wed, Jan 10, at 6:30 pm in the Undercroft. RSVP to José Garrigó at JGarrigo@TruroAnglican.com.

MISSIONS

Prayer Team Going to Cuba

Seven members of the Truro Prayer Team (Sue Hardman, Chris Tiller, Jackie March, Georgene Assur, Eric Assur, José Garrigó, and Gil Siler) are flying to Havana in February to give seminars on healing prayer to leaders in Cuba. We need prayer support for visas, smooth entry into the country, and the power of the Holy Spirit to teach and minister. We are feeding people for two days and providing worksheets for each leader at $20 each. If you would like to sponsor a Cuban prayer leader, you can make a donation to Truro and mark it as Healing Prayer Seminar. We need to raise $1,200 to cover 60 leaders.

i If you have questions, email José Garrigó at JGarrigo@TruroAnglican.com.

TRURO PRESCHOOL (TPK)

School Expansion Task Force Q&A

Sun, Jan 14 | 10:30 am | Common Grounds

Truro's School Task Force has been working to consider how we might add opportunities for educating children at Truro. The Task Force is currently evaluating two options: expanding our preschool to include elementary grades, and establishing an after-school/summer program serving students in area elementary schools. Would you like to be part of helping form the Truro school? Interested in finding out if it's an option for your family? Come to the meeting!
