Come With a Friend to Alpha

Fri, Jan 27 | 7:00 pm | Undercroft

Alpha is a sincere attempt for meaningful conversations around spirituality, the person of Jesus, and the beliefs of Christianity. This a safe space for the sake of honest exploration without coercion—a space to ask hard questions, voice doubts, and grow together in a community. No question is too hostile or too simple. There are so few places for such discussions, and NoVA can be oppressively busy, even lonely. Yet Truro Anglican Church believes people want to have conversations of this sort. So we at Truro invite you to Alpha. Come make space and wrestle with big questions in small community.

i Contact Michael King with questions at mking@truroanglican.com.

PARISH LIFE

Changes in Building Access

You may have noticed a few changes around campus. Some entrances you're accustomed to using are no longer accessible, and we've added other security upgrades and policy changes. We recognize that some of these changes may result in some inconveniences. However, we appreciate your cooperation as we continually endeavor to keep Truro safe, especially for our children.

i If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Bob Tate at btate@truroanglican.com.

Learn about Islam in the Bridges Course

Bridges is a curriculum developed by the Crescent Project to introduce Christians to Islam and to pave the way for building relationships with Muslims in our community. Truro will offer this course on Sundays from Jan 15 - Feb 26 at 10:30 am. Nick White will be facilitating discussion, using videos and other materials. Muslims will be invited to the course for periods of questions and building bridges. Space is limited.

VESTRY

“Vestry” is a good old Anglican word for the body at Truro that functions as our board of directors. Our vestry has 18 members who serve three-year terms. Six new vestry members will be elected during our annual parish meeting in March to replace the six whose terms are expiring. We are seeking recommendations of Truro members who might be interested in being part of our vestry during this exciting time at Truro.

i Please send recommendations to Sharon Jones (sgjones52@gmail.com) or Kim Reynolds (kimtreyolds@gmail.com).

MOLO—Moms of Little Ones

by Hannah King

Whether it’s your first or your fifth child, having a little one to care for is a big job! Drop in on a supportive community at MOLO on Wednesday mornings between 9:30 and 11:00 for a chance to relax in a child-friendly space with other moms and little ones (birth through age three). We usually meet in the Undercroft and provide nursing chairs, toys, and, of course—coffee!
