Alpha Is Coming in February

Thu(s) Beginning Feb 6 | 6:30 pm | Undercroft

Are you looking for a safe place to be able to discuss the bigger questions about life, faith, and meaning? A place where no question is off limits and everyone's perspective is listened to and valued? If so, then Alpha is for you! Please consider joining us for the start of an eight-week journey exploring these big life questions in community. We'll share a meal, a talk, and conversation. All faith and non-faith backgrounds are welcome. Childcare up through age 10 is available.

i Register at bit.ly/WinterAlpha2020. Contact Jason LaLone at JLaLone@TruroAnglican.com.

Rooted Is Running This Winter

Thu(s) Beginning Feb 6 | 6:30 pm | Undercroft

Rooted is a great way to experience community and discipleship. Running simultaneously with Alpha on Thursday nights, Rooted groups eat together and then discuss the spiritual disciplines and rhythms that root us in the Christian life. Daily meditations and three experiential exercises make Rooted a truly interactive learning experience. Childcare is available up to 10 years of age.

i Register at TruroAnglican.com/Rooted. Contact Jason LaLone at JLaLone@TruroAnglican.com.

This Afternoon: A Concert with the Decho Ensemble

Sun, Jan 12 | 2:00 pm | Chapel

Bring friends to a free concert with the Decho Ensemble, sharing music on the saxophone. We always say that "you don't want to miss this event," but you really don't want to miss this event. The ensemble has performed throughout North America and Europe. They have been with us before, and we look forward to hearing them today.

i Email Andrew Cote with questions at ACote@TruroAnglican.com.

TIPS

You Can Be Part of Our Exciting TIPS Classes

TIPS has just started its winter session of classes for our international community. We have many students coming to make friends and to learn English as well as more about American culture. If you like the idea of helping make TIPS a welcoming place, we have openings on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9:15 to 11:30. You can come once a month, once a week, or for every class. No preparation is needed. Come try it out one time to see if this is the place for you.

i Email us at TIPS@TruroAnglican.com.

GIVING

Look What Your VERY Generous December Giving ($$$) Did!

by Bob Tate, Executive Director

First, let me say, you have overwhelmed us with your generous giving in December! We were down $67K against our giving budget going into December, and our budget for contributions in December was $459K, so we needed to raise over $500K to make budget for the year. Praise be to God, with your help, we did it! So thank you, Jesus, for this church's generosity! And here are some of the things that happened here at Truro during the busy month of December.

We started off with an amazing concert in our chapel celebrating a Charlie Brown Christmas with a jazz trio led by our own Andrew Cote. Our big annual Carols by Glowstick came at a time when we all needed a Holy Spirit infilling, and did he ever come through—it was a joyous occasion! During the following week, we had a wonderful Missions dinner and a much-needed day of prayer led by Tim Mayfield. Our many volunteers ensured we enjoyed some of the most beautiful Advent Sundays ever. Christmas Eve was simply spectacular, thanks to all the wonderful volunteers—from flower and altar guild to choir to LEMs and ushers—and, oh yeah, our amazing worship team and clergy! Our TIPS folks came in big numbers to attend both a Christmas Eve and a Christmas Day celebration. We had a lovely Newcomer's Coffee, and a Seniors Christmas lunch with over 80 in attendance, led by Coleman Tyler and Santa Claus (I am so humbled he made the time to visit)! Happy New Year Truro. God bless us all!
