By Gerald David, Truro Treasurer

Truro is co-sponsoring an historic event in the life of the church: the Amore Conference, March 15-17, in Harrisburg, PA. The very heart of the conference will be on Thursday, March 16, and we are reserving a bus for those who would like to come for that day.

Lenten Teaching Series: Christ and the Order of Love

Sat(s), March 4 - April 1 | 9:00 - 11:30 am | Undercroft

Truro is offering a special SPTC series of classes on Saturday mornings in Lent. What might the person of Christ, human marriage, the orders of creation and redemption, and peacemaking have to do with each other? In this course, we will examine love and hate in terms of both the internal, subjective sense and the external, objective form, in light of the person of Jesus Christ and human nuptial love. We will also examine the paradigms of love and hate that are expressed in the Biblical account of creation, fall, and redemption, and how these relate to our concrete human experience.

i Cost: $50/person. Register at <http://bit.ly/2lkAqc8>.

Pancake Supper for Fat Tuesday!

Tues, Feb 28 | 5:30 - 7:30 pm | Undercroft

It's a tradition! All are welcome for a giant, communal family pancake supper on Fat Tuesday, the evening before Lent begins. The more, the merrier! We'll have pancakes, sausage, and a festive atmosphere, with clergy and church leaders flipping pancakes. Start the Lenten season with neighbors and your church family. Suggested donation is $5, and all proceeds go to support the Truro youth for retreats and mission.

WORSHIP + ARTS

First Sunday Concert Series Begins in March

Sun, March 5 | 2:00 pm | Chapel

We are excited to announce a series of monthly concerts featuring artists from inside and outside of Truro, bringing us a wide variety of musical expressions from a diverse group of artists, for the glory of God and for the benefit of this congregation and our surrounding community.

Our inaugural concert will be on Sun, March 5, at 2:00 in the chapel. We will welcome Christopher Jenkins, a virtuosic classical guitarist, who is a Teaching Artist on the faculty of the George Mason University Potomac Arts Academy and the Director of Guitar at Dominion Christian School. The concert will be free, but an offering will be taken. We look forward to seeing you there and enjoying beautiful music together!

TIPS INTERNATIONAL MINISTRY

Women in Need

by José Garrigó

We invite all of you to consider helping up with these needs:

Cuba: Marbelys, a young pastor's wife who has an extensive ministry, needs a cell phone to better serve her flock nationally, women's vitamins for her delicate health (caused in part by being imprisoned for her faith when she was pregnant), and two school backpacks for her 13- and 15-year old boys.

Local: Two women from the Middle East and North Africa are struggling in their ESL classes because they received no formal education in their countries of origin. We need women who would like to meet with them one-on-one to teach them basic writing skills and to befriend them. If you can help, you can set a schedule that works for you.

i If you can help, contact TIPS at tips@truroanglican.com.

and many others. This will be a powerful movement of the Spirit to share the good news across different denominations, using Amore to unite us as one body.

We have reserved a 55-passenger bus that will depart the Truro campus at 6:00 am, Thu, March 16. The bus will depart Harrisburg at 7:00 pm that evening after the concluding worship service. The cost for the day for both the bus and the conference is $100. (If you could provide additional funds toward scholarships for those who might not be able to afford the bus, that would be a real blessing.) Only 55 seats—so don't wait! .

i Register and reserve a seat on the bus at bit.ly/2IsOjRH. More info on the conference at freshexpressionsus.org/amorelaunch.
