St Paul's Theology Centre (SPTC)

Sat(s), Feb 20 - Mar 19 | 9:00 - 11:30 am | $50/person

Series: The People of God and the Old Testament

We're excited to be launching the first five weeks of SPTC at Truro on Sat, Feb 20. SPTC is all about building confidence in the Christian story, bringing theology back into the heart of the local church. And we're going to start with the Old Testament looking at things like: "Creation, Fall and Flood", "Patriarchs and Purpose" and "Worship and Sacrifice."

Come and have your horizons expanded, and your faith deepened!
Note: Course registration is limited to 100, so don't delay! i For more info and registration visit truroanglican.com/SPTC.

Still Time to Join a Group for 40 Days of Friendship

During Lent, everyone in the parish is invited to join a community group to study Wesley Hill's Spiritual Friendship in conjunction with the Lenten sermon series. No long-term commitment to a group is required; simply fill out a pew card or email Hannah King at hking@truroanglican.com to get connected to a group near you!

i Visit truroanglican.com/40days for more information and resources.

Join Us For A Membership Dinner

Sun, Feb 21 | 6:15 - 7:45 pm | Common Grounds

On Sun, Feb 21, we are holding a Membership Dinner for those who are not yet members, immediately following the 5:00 pm service. For those who are new or were unable to attend the Membership Lunch last year, this will be an opportunity to hear about the mission and vision of Truro Anglican, and to explore what it means to be a member here. We invite you to come, enjoy some good food and fellowship and consider taking that next step in your life at Truro.

i Register at bit.ly/1TjXp05 or contact Meredith Cote, 703.273.1300 x120 or mcote@truroanglican.com.

Alpha for ESOL: Thu(s), 12:00 pm · Evening Alpha: Fri(s), 7:00 - 9:30 pm (starting Apr 8)

PRAYER MINISTRY

A Healing Eucharist and Soaking Prayer

Sun, Feb 21 | 2:00 - 3:30 pm | Chapel

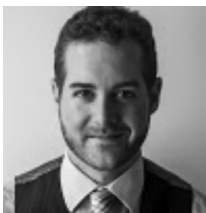

Come to rest in His presence, to soak in His love, to listen for His voice, and to enjoy a few hours of stillness. Prayer ministers will be circulating and silently praying for all who come. Following the time of Soaking Prayer, we will join together in a Healing Eucharist, and you will be anointed with oil for healing.

i Find out more on The City, bit.ly/1GgrD0i or contact Sue Hardman, shardman@truroanglican.com.

WORSHIP + ARTS

Welcome Andrew Cote! by Jamie Brown

I'm thrilled to announce Andrew Cote as our new Worship and Arts Associate. He'll begin directing our choir after Easter.

Michael King has done a superb job as interim choir director, and will soon devote his energies fully to Young Adults, Alpha, Family Ministry, and impending fatherhood.

Andrew brings incredible gifts: arranging, composing, conducting, and teaching. He's a talented instrumentalist and has played guitar and/or drums with us regularly. He'll soon complete his PhD at GMU.

He shares my vision for a worship ministry and choir that employs a convergence of styles, all for the glory to God. Welcome, Andrew!

Art Gallery Exhibit "He Was, I Am" Reception

Sun, Feb 21 | 1:00 pm | Truro Art Gallery, Undercroft

Join us after church on Sun, Feb 21 for a reception with artists Matthew and Gwyneth Kiehl, to explore their new art gallery exhibit, "He Was, I Am." In the exhibit, the artists explore a response to both the life and legacy of loved ones, and the example and teachings of Jesus during His life on earth.

YOUNG ADULTS

Young Adults Retreat

Every year, the young adults of Truro get away for a few days together. This year, we will do the same, retreating to a couple of cabins in the Shenandoah Valley from Mar 11 - 13. Come to unplug together from an otherwise very busy Fairfax. This year, we'll look at being in real community: being "Needy and Needed".

Whether you have been able to come to Tuesday nights or not, you are invited. Whether you can afford the cost or not, you are invited. i Talk with Michael King, mking@truroanglican.com, or grab another young adult you see around church and ask them about it.

LOCAL MISSIONS

Missions Dinner with Chaney Mullins

Tue, Mar 8 | 7:00 pm | Common Grounds

Join us for an inspiring evening with Chaney Mullins, representing Divine Mercy Care / Tepeyac Family Center of Fairfax. This exemplary organization, seeking to transform hearts through healthcare, has a three-fold emphasis: merciful medicine, scriptural social justice, and Christ-centered relationships.

PARISH LIFE

Annual Meeting and Vestry Election

Meet Candidates: Sun(s), Feb 21 + 28 | 10:00 - 11:00 am
Reception Office

Annual Meeting: Sun, Mar 6 | 2:00 pm | Sanctuary

The Annual Parish Meeting is coming soon. At that meeting, the congregation will select six new members of the Truro Vestry. You will be able to meet the candidates for Vestry on the two Sundays prior to the Annual Meeting.

To be eligible to vote in the vestry election, a parishioner must be an adult communicant (16 years or older) in good standing and listed on the Truro Parish Register. To be a communicant in good standing, a person must be baptized, and for the previous year, faithful in worship (unless prevented for good cause), and faithful in working, praying, and giving for the spread of the Kingdom of God. To be listed on the Truro Parish Register, one of the following criteria must be met: have a signed Truro membership form on file or have a record of confirmation on file.

Even if you have been participating at Truro for some time, it is possible that your records were never formally updated. So, if you have not voted before or are uncertain about your eligibility to vote at this year's meeting, please contact Parish Secretary, Jeremy Lamb, jlamb@truroanglican.com or 703.273.1300 x115, to ensure your status is accurately reflected.

New to Truro Anglican?

Come and visit our Welcome Information cart just outside the sanctuary to receive a Welcome Gift and to ask any questions. Or fill out a Welcome Card located in the pew racks and put it in the offering plate.
