Look What Impact Your Generous January Giving ($$$) Had!

by Bob Tate, Executive Director

January was once again an exciting month for ministry at Truro! Tim led us in a day of prayer on January 8 that was attended by hundreds of you throughout the day. It was a beautiful day of coming together in prayer for our church. Epiphany Sunday with the three wise men was once again a huge hit for adults and children alike. When the Epiphany pageant was completed, the three magi headed down to KidZone for some wonderful time with our kids. Our Young Adults had a retreat weekend away with over 20 in attendance. Our Youth had a super fun day snowboarding. There were 20 Truro kids plus 6 guests! José Garrigó organized a lunch for 31 Africans in our congregation. José also led a group of Truro members to worship with Antioch Baptist Church, continuing our fellowship with the African American church community. We were honored to have the Rev. Joseph Howard preach to us on Martin Luther King Jr Sunday. Debbie Appleby led a wonderful gathering of community group leaders at which all community groups were represented. We recently created three new groups—way to go, everyone! Finally, Cathy and I, along with Tim, Becca Triplett, and Jason LaLone attended the Alpha USA National Conference in Mesa, AZ, hosted by Hillsong Church. It was a wonderful time of worship and fellowship and learning from some amazing Christian leaders. Wow, can't wait to see what February brings!
