Welcome!

We're delighted to have you join us for worship today. If this is your first time at Truro, please visit our welcome tent outside to receive a gift and to ask any questions. Or fill out a welcome card located in the pew rack and put it in the offering plate, and we'll be in touch.

This morning we are thrilled to have the Gordon College Women's Choir, conducted by Faith Lueth and accompanied by Grace Lee, helping to lead us in worship. Welcome to our new friends!

The Season of Lent

During the six weeks of Lent, Truro will be focusing on the Way of the Cross. Through Sunday sermons, the Sunday Rector's Forum, a new 40-day devotional book, and a study for our community groups (which can be downloaded from our website), we will journey together through Jesus's Passion as we prepare our hearts for the celebration of the resurrection on Easter (Sunday, April 21). Each household in our database should have received a copy of our new Lenten devotional book in the mail. Extra copies are available for purchase for $5. A table will be outside after today's services where you can buy one.

Ancient Hebrew Scrolls Exhibition Today and Tuesday

Today After the 9:00 + 11:15 Services | Undercroft

Missions Dinner | Tue, Mar 12 | 7:00 pm | Undercroft

Biblical Hebrew manuscripts are the Old Testament Holy Scriptures—received, recorded, and preserved by the Jewish people, and carefully copied from the originals throughout the millennia. These Ancient Hebrew Scrolls make up the only complete set of the Tanakh (Hebrew Scriptures) in the world available for public viewing. View them this morning in the Undercroft after the 9:00 or 11:15 service. Several of the scrolls will also be on view during the Rector's Forum, with special guest Rosemary Look What Impact Your Generous February Giving ($$$) Had!

by Bob Tate

February was an amazing month at Truro. We had a marriage retreat led by Tory and Elizabeth with about 100 folks in attendance. It was very well received indeed, and helped kick off the Marriage Course the following week—nine couples are investing time on their marriages together. Meanwhile, our Truro International Programs (TIPS) ministry held an international-themed dinner with over 55 guests in attendance. We hired a wonderful new High School Youth Pastor, Summer Anderson, who is part of our Young Adults ministry and has been working with our Youth as a volunteer. She will be a super addition to our Family Ministries team. Our Truro men organized a wonderful Men's Retreat at Graves Mountain Lodge. The focus was on prayer ministry, and there were amazing stories of healings and men receiving prophetic words. It was such a success that we have booked Graves Mountain again for another retreat in the Fall! We celebrated baptisms and a reaffirmation of faith for four persons new to the faith. We had over 200 folks join Truro Preschool and Kindergarten for their big Snowflake Festival. We had Scout Sunday with Truro Boy Scout Troop 918 serving as ushers. And the Truro staff had a wonderful time of fellowship at our annual staff retreat at Graves Mountain. All that, plus Alpha, Rooted, and so much more. Can't wait to see what March brings!

FAMILY MINISTRIES

Welcome Summer Anderson!

We are thrilled to announce that Summer Anderson has joined the Family Ministries team as our full-time Director of High School Ministries! She will work alongside Wes Buckley (Youth Pastor) and Mike Seawright (Director of Family Ministries). Summer has attended Truro for the last year and a half, and brings a deep love for Jesus and young people to our staff team. Look for chances to get to know her in the coming weeks!

Parenting Course: Sticky Faith

10:30 am | Conference Room

Helping kids and teens develop a "sticky" faith is at the core of Family Ministries mission at Truro. Join us for a brief course for parents from Fuller Youth Institute.

PRAYER

Walking the Way of the Cross

Sat, Mar 23 | 8:30 am - 1:00 pm

Walking the Way of the Cross can be part of our Lenten discipline as we journey with Jesus through the last week of his time with us on earth. Please join us for a time of teaching, prayer, and meditation, led by Elizabeth Baucum, as we walk around the Truro campus taking the time to pray at each of the newly-installed stations of the cross.

Coffee and pastry will be available at 8:30, and the teaching begins at 9:00 in the Chapel. Lunch will be provided. Please bring a chair if you would like to sit on the lawn while you pray and meditate at a particular station. Stations will be arranged inside the buildings in case of bad weather.

i The cost is $10. Register online at tacva.infellowship.com/Forms/416128.

For more information, contact the Rev. Sue Hardman at SHardman@TruroAnglican.com, or 703.273.1300, x305.

TIPS

Working with Internationals at TIPS

Would like to volunteer with TIPS? We need conversation partners for our evening and morning classes. You can come once for a taste to see if this is for you! We also need volunteers to help us set up and welcome and to help us clean up and organize.

i Please email TIPS@TruroAnglican.com to find out more about how you can be part of our ministry with internationals.

the house

The House is meeting Wed(s) at 6:30 pm in the Undercroft for a simplified, fresh expression of Truro consisting of a dinner, a story about Jesus, conversation, prayer, and singing.
