Psalm 133 (ESV)
A SONG OF ASCENTS.

- ¹ Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brothers dwell in unity!
- ² It is like the precious oil on the head, running down on the beard, on the beard of Aaron, running down on the collar of his robes!
- ³ It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion!
For there the LORD has commanded the blessing, life forevermore.

A Look Backwards and Forwards

by Tory Baucum

Sun, May 29 | 5:00 pm

On May 29, we will honor Canon Andrew White by installing him as the Honorary Rector of Reconciliation. Andrew walked with me as confidant and coach through the 5 year lawsuit, its peaceful resolution with Bishop Shannon Johnston, our peacemaking work with Episcopalians and our pioneering work of reconciliation. On May 29, we honor his quiet, behind-the-scene but vital role in our past. But we also look forward as Andrew joins us to build our peacemaking work with Muslims, as well as others, through the Int'l School of Reconciliation. Please come to this amazing ecumenical service to learn more and pray for this new chapter in Truro's history.

A reception in the Undercroft will follow. Visit bit.ly/1X8yMp6 or contact Meredith Cote, mcote@truroanglican.com, for more information.

Fellows Program Launch

The Fellows Program is a year-long vocational discipleship program designed to help new and recent college graduates start well. Our hope is to provide Fellows with the spiritual, vocational and educational tools to live fully integrated lives devoted to Jesus and His Kingdom. We are hoping to bring 2 – 4 Fellows to Truro in the Fall, and we need your help to start well! Would you consider whether God might be calling you to help? Please consider: 1) helping to provide a paid internship (3 days/week) so that Fellows can get great work experience; 2) hosting a Fellow in your home from Sep – Jun; 3) recommending a new or recent grad to the program.

i More info at truroanglican.com/fellows. To apply, please contact Mike Seawright, mseawright@truroanglican.com.

May 22 is Recommitment Sunday at Truro Anglican

On Sun, May 22, Bishop John Guernsey will visit Truro to confirm, receive, and reaffirm a number of people in our congregation as part of the 11:15 am service that day.

If you would like to be confirmed or received into the Anglican Church or would like to reaffirm your faith, we invite you to join us for lunch on Sun, May 15, following the 11:15 am service to learn more. i Please RSVP at bit.ly/1StcoGL or contact Liliana Nava, lnava-ramirez@truroanglican.com.

We hope you will consider this opportunity to reaffirm your faith and take the next step into the life and work of this church. If you are unable to attend the lunch but are still interested in being confirmed or have questions about confirmation, contact Coleman Tyler, ctyler@truroanglican.com.

CROSS-CULTURAL MINISTRIES

1-on-1 Ministry Opportunity

1-on-1 + ESOL Sun, May 15 | Gunnell House Parlor
 Orientation: 10:00 - 11:00 am or 1:00 - 2:00 pm
 Meet Your Partner: Sat, May 21 | Church Backyard
 4:30 - 5:30 pm

Summer is coming soon! For many of us, it is time for traveling and experiencing new cultures. This year, you can do that very easily through the 1-on-1 ministry of Truro International Programs and Services (TIPS). Through TIPS, you will be given a conversation partner from around the world. You will meet six times during the summer months for one hour. Together you will decide your topics of conversation. Are you ready for the experience? Through 1-on-1 you can experience a different culture and befriend the world. i If you want to participate, email tips@truroanglican.com or you can fill out an application at truroanglican.com/tips.

FAMILY MINISTRIES

Welcome Matthew Desmarais

We are thrilled to announce that, after nearly two years, Matthew Desmarais will no longer be serving as Family Ministry Intern. He is transitioning to a new role on staff as Family Ministry Associate for Outreach and Discipleship. His primary responsibilities will be pioneering a mid-week program for kids transitioning from Elementary School to Secondary/Middle School, and growing kids' programs to coincide with our adult evangelism and discipleship efforts. Matthew also plans to enter seminary in the fall.

MISSIONS

Pentecost/Missions Sunday

Come for a festive morning next Sun, May 15, as we celebrate Pentecost and the coming of the Holy Spirit. In the spirit (Spirit) of Pentecost, we'll have: a Missions theme; Scripture read in different languages; and light "sidewalk refreshments" after the 8:30 + 11:15 am services. Wear your brightest red/oranges (Pentecost fire!). Join us and bring a friend!

GLOBAL MISSIONS

Let's Talk Turkey!

Mon, May 23 | 7:00 pm
 Common Grounds

Join us as we focus on the strategic nation of Turkey, where Truro Overseas Partner Fran Blanchard faithfully serves. Fran will be joined by her co-worker Margaret and Truro Partner David Meeks, who recently was in Turkey for ministry amongst national believers. They will share inspiring reports of what God is doing in this unique European-Asian nation. A delicious catered meal will be served featuring—you guessed it—turkey! Join us for an uplifting evening together.

Global Alpha Training to Guantánamo, Cuba

From Jun 24 - Jul 2, Truro will be sending a team to Cuba for the purpose of conducting our fifth Global Alpha Training (GAT) mission. Nine Truro members and a SAMS missionary will have the opportunity to train 100 leaders in Guantánamo, Cuba to conduct the Parenting and Marriage Courses! The Episcopal Church in Guantánamo is organizing this training with the presence of Pentecostals, Baptist, Methodist and Catholics. The team will also minister to the leaders, and will provide tools and supplies for their work and visit rural churches in the mountains offering ministry and encouragement.

The team needs prayer partners, financial support, and donations of laptops and cell phones (new or used). Donations should be given to Truro Anglican Church with "GAT" in the memo line. Thank you.

Forgot Your Wallet + Checkbook?

Give Online!

by Bob Tate

Ever wonder: "What would I do if the offering basket was coming around, and I forgot to hit the ATM or to bring my checkbook?" Well, I decided to do an experiment. I whipped out my iPhone, opened The City app, and timed how long it would take me to make a donation to Truro. It took me about 30 seconds, from start to finish, and seconds later, there was an email thanking me for my donation! Pretty amazing. So if you ever find yourself in this situation, just do what I did, and look with confidence in the eyes of the usher passing the plate and say: "I gave online" with a big smile!

Online giving helps a lot with cash flow during summer months when more folks go on vacation, or on snowy Sundays in the winter, or whenever attendance is low. And for you younger Truro members who do virtually everything online, The City app just might be your best way to start that giving journey. So join The City and hop on the giving train!

If you need help with online giving, please contact Meghan Graham at mgraham@truroanglican.com or call her at 703.273.1300 x125, and she will be happy to assist you!!!

Please note: due to today being Mother's Day, there will be no Youth Group tonight.

Got Kids

and not sure where they are supposed to go? Visit the Family Ministry welcome table on the patio or pick up a "Got Kids?" brochure from an usher.

New to Truro Anglican?
