High School Baccalaureate Service for All Graduates

Tue, May 28 | 6:30 pm | Chapel

If you are a graduating high school senior and have NOT received an invitation to this event, please contact us. Truro wants to celebrate with you in this pivotal moment of your story. After the Baccalaureate service, Truro's Young Adults (young professionals, college grads, and students) will host a reception in Gunnell House, welcoming you into young adulthood.

Whatever is next for you (college, work, trade school, the military, a gap year, etc.), we hope you can take a breath, rest, and join us for Baccalaureate. All from Truro are welcome to come and join the celebration.

i Please contact either Wes Buckley at WBuckley@TruroAnglican.com or Summer Anderson at SAnderson@TruroAnglican.com.

PARISH LIFE

An Announcement from the Kings

Last August, we began to feel that God was doing a new thing in our family. We referred to it metaphorically as “the first trimester,” a sense that something new was being born, though we didn’t yet know what it would be. Then during Lent, it became clear that God was calling us home to South Carolina, to minister in an Anglican Church near Hannah’s family. We realized then that the “new thing” being born in our family was actually us, and that Truro was the womb. God has nurtured and developed us here these last five years, and now he is sending us out. It is such a bittersweet announcement for us, as we truly are children of Truro! But we are so grateful to take the gifts, skills, and spirit we’ve received from this faith family to bless a new congregation. We will be sharing the position of Associate Rector at Village Anglican Church in Greenville, SC, starting June 20. Please pray for our family as we make this transition, and know that we will go out from here with great love and affection for Truro!

Emanuel* Tickets for Jun 12 Available Now for $5

7:00 pm | University Mall Theater + Cinema Arts Theater

Everyone at Truro is strongly encouraged to see the film Emanuel, the story of the 2015 shooting at Emanuel AME Church in Charleston and its aftermath. Truro is partnering with two other churches—New Hope Church and Antioch Baptist Church—for a special screening on Wednesday, June 12. There will be an opportunity for conversation and prayer after the showing. Many people from other churches have been snapping up tickets, so get yours now.

The film will be shown publicly in theaters on June 17 and 19. Please make time to attend one of these screenings and to enter into the conversation about the challenging forgiveness evidenced by the victims and their families. The film will be foundational to our teaching as we head into the fall.

i The film’s trailer plus information on how to get tickets for the June 12 screening are at www.emanuelpreview.com.

WORSHIP + ARTS

Hosts at the Communion Table

Would you like to explore serving as a lay eucharistic minister at our morning services? Our LEMs help serve communion each week as hosts at the Lord’s table.

i If you’re a committed, baptized member of Truro, come talk with one of our LEMs outside after the service, or email Jamie Brown at JBrown@TruroAnglican.com.

Kids Dance Ministry Recital

Tue, May 21 | 5:30-6:00 pm
Sanctuary

The beautiful group of dancers who periodically worship with us on Sundays are having an end-of-year recital. You are cordially invited to join the Truro Dance Ministry for this 30-minute recital featuring our K-8th grade dancers, many of whom will be performing worship dances they choreographed on their own under the direction of our dance instructor, Kitty Morgan.

PARISH LIFE

Have a Look Through the Lost and Found

Hey Truro! Although the permanent home of the Lost and Found is in the narthex closet, we will be putting it in the glass walkway the last Sunday of every month for you to look through. We’ll be donating the items periodically, so make sure to come look for your lost things!
