Next Saturday: Pentecost Teaching on Prayer and Mission

by Tory Baucum

This year's Pentecost teaching mission brings together two things that should have never been separated: prayer and mission. Why? Mission is not primarily about methodology but power. And prayer is the conduit of divine power. Every great missionary movement in the history of the Church was lifted up, held together, and powered on by a concert of prayer. Our prayer is that as Truro grows deeper in prayer it will expand more fully in mission. Prayer and mission are the diastole and systole of the Church's heartbeat. The next article describes the details for the teaching. I hope to see you there.

Special Pentecost Teaching with Tim and Julie Tennent

Sat, Jun 3 | 8:00 am - 12:00 pm | Undercroft

Next Saturday, we are hosting Dr. Timothy Tennent, President of Asbury Theological Seminary, along with his wife, Julie. Tim and Julie will be teaching on "Pentecost and the World Mission of the Church" as well as on the Psalms, "The Songs of Jesus."

Tim has been President of Asbury since 2009, and has written several books. Julie is an accomplished organist with an M.E.M. degree from Gordon-Conwell.

i Register online at bit.ly/pentecostteaching. A light breakfast will be available. Note that there is no childcare for this event.

Share "Home" on Pentecost with our International Guests

Next Sunday, we will celebrate Pentecost with our international community. We have an Art Exhibit in the glass walkway that you can visit and that you can contribute to. Bring images or share words that remind you of home. You can do this any time between today and next Sunday.

We'll also have a potluck of snacks that remind you of home, between the 9:00 and 11:15 services. Bring a snack or beverage. We'll have food from around the world and can get to know one another better as we have fun.

i Questions? Contact Nar Coleman at ncoleman@truroanglican.com.

TIPS

Volunteer with Internationals This Summer

One-on-One Summer Conversation Program: We need women who can serve as a conversation partner with an international student over the summer, meeting six times.

Befriending a Family Program: Get to know an international family over two or more meals. Meals are scheduled at the preference of both families.

i Contact tips@truroanglican.com for more info.

SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES

What Will You Do at Truro This Summer?

Activities and groups are taking a break for the summer. It's a perfect time to try something new and get to know more people. Here are two great options:

Summer Book Study Begins this Week

Tues(s), May 30 - Jul 25 | 9:30 - 11:30 am | Art Gallery

Wed(s), May 31 - Jul 26 | 7:00 - 9:00 pm | Common Grounds

Please join Elizabeth Baucum and Kim Reynolds for a summer reading of Live Today Well by Thomas Dailey, an accessible introduction to the "inspired common sense" of St. Frances de Sales. We'll gain insight and learn practical tools that help us find meaning and a path to holiness through the routines of daily life. All are welcome to either session!

i For more info or to sign up, contact Elizabeth Baucum, etbaucum@verizon.net.

Summer Worship Nights

Fri nights | Jun 23 - Aug 11 | 6:00 - 7:00 pm

Every Friday night from Jun 23-Aug 11, we have a new way to worship at Truro: summer worship nights in the Sanctuary. For one hour we'll worship, have Bible teaching, and prayer ministry. This is for the whole congregation and for all ages. Kids will worship with their families for the first half hour before heading downstairs for an engaging kids program. Nursery will be offered for children 0-48 months.

MISSION

Guantánamo: Be a Voice for the Voiceless

by José Garrigó

A group of 8 people from Truro are going back to Guantánamo July 8-17. We will be ministering to the pastors of 13 churches by teaching and providing educational materials on marriage, and we will conduct a marriage retreat. Our younger team members will conduct activities with teens and young adults in the city. They will also meet with youth leaders to strategize a 5-year plan to create a summer camp.

You can help us by praying individual or by joining us in prayer every Tuesday from 6:30-7:00 pm by calling (515) 604-9540 and joining the conferece call. The access code is 524833.

We have some particular needs for this trip. If you would like to help support this effort, we have posted a list on The City of all that is needed, including everything from soccer balls to retreat scholarships. Please see if there is a way you can be part of this effort to bless the voiceless.

PARISH

Do You Wonder What We're Doing in our Sunday Services? We Have a Class for You!

Sun, Jun 4 | 10:00-11:00 am | Common Grounds

Learn about the purpose, symbols, history, and theology of our liturgy in this brief class. We'll walk through our Sunday morning liturgy, and explain what we do and why we do it. All are invited.

FAMILY MINISTRIES

Youth Water Night

Sun, Jun 11 | 6:15-8:15 pm | Truro Front Lawn

It's the last Youth Group of the school year, with a night full of fun and water—dinner, a water slide, and slip 'n slide kickball. We'll honor graduating seniors as they move on to their next adventure. Also, all current 5th graders are invited to come to experience Youth Group. From here on out, 5th graders will be welcome to participate in all youth events!

WORSHIP + ARTS

First Sunday Chapel Concert

Sun, Jun 4 | 2:00 pm | Chapel
City of Fairfax Theatre Company

On Pentecost, after our celebrations with our international community, please stick around for our First Sunday Chapel Concert. Artists from the City of Fairfax Theatre Company will be performing, and the concert is free.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITY

Housing Need- Adopt a Mother

We are looking for a home-stay for our next "adopted mother," a young pregnant woman looking to make a change in life for her and her unborn baby. This young woman is already part of the extended Truro family and just needs a place to live in order to join us for the duration of her pregnancy.
