members—a joyful time was had by all. The Westmont College Choir of 80 students performed in our Sanctuary in a special concert. Truro's gifted pianist, Mark Irchai, hosted and conducted an incredible concert with around 200 people in attendance. We worked with Antioch Baptist Church and New Hope Church as we prepare for the soon-to-be released movie Emanuel, with many related events planned for June and beyond. Our children's dance ministry had a delightful end-of-year recital. Peacemaking work continued with a special pilgrimage led by Tory. Quite a month! Can't wait to see what June brings!

This Week: Emanuel Special Screening

Wed, Jun 12 | 7:00 pm | $5.00

University Mall Theater + Cinema Arts Theater

Everyone at Truro is strongly encouraged to see the film Emanuel, the story of the 2015 shooting at Emanuel AME Church in Charleston and its aftermath. Truro is partnering with two other churches—New Hope Church and Antioch Baptist Church—for a special screening at two local theaters this coming Wednesday. There will be an opportunity for conversation and prayer after the showing.

The film will be shown publicly in theaters on June 17 and 19. Please make time to attend one of these screenings and to enter into the conversation about the challenging forgiveness evidenced by the victims and their families. The film will be foundational to our teaching as we head into the fall.

i This event is expected to sell out. Available tickets can be purchased online through Tuesday at emanuelpreview.com.

Men's Bonfire

Sat, Jun 22 | 7:00 pm | Mayfield House (next door to Truro)
