Your Whole Family Can Be Part of Alpha This Fall!

Cookout: Fri, Sep 23 | 6:00 pm Course: Fri(s), Sep 30 - Nov 18 | 6:00 pm

Alpha is an open and welcoming place to ask questions and to discuss the basics of what Christianity is all about. Each night there's food, a talk, and small group time. Everyone is always welcome, but families will find this fall course especially fun! We think your kids will love the "Kids Olympics" program we're preparing for them—games, crafts, stories, and more for pre-K through 6th grade. We'd love teens to come help with the younger kids, and, of course, we have nursery for the littlest ones. There's a place for everyone at Alpha! Come to our Alpha Cookout (with bouncy houses!) on Friday, Sep 23 at 6:00 pm to get a taste!

WORSHIP

Our Fall Service Times

This summer, our service times have been 9:00 am and 11:15 am in the Sanctuary, and 5:00 pm in the Chapel. We like these service times so much, and have received such positive feedback, that we've decided to keep them in September. So, beginning Sun, Sep 11, the only adjustment to the schedule will be the resumption of our 7:30 am service in the Chapel.

Adjusting our 8:30 am service to 9:00 am has proven to have many advantages. The main impact will be on the discipleship classes in between services. We are still planning a content-rich half-hour for all ages, and Tory will still be teaching his class in Common Grounds during that time. We'll also offer some classes starting at 10:00 am, and, of course, at other times throughout the week and year, namely through St Paul's Theological Centre. We're looking forward to a great year and will work to make these "new" service times work as smoothly as possible.

TEACHING

Fellows Update

This September, we are welcoming our first two participants in The Fellows Program at Truro—Joseph Reedy and Chris McNutt. Be on the lookout for these two young men and be sure to give them a warm Truro welcome! This program is in partnership with Christ Church Vienna, and is a year-long fellowship designed to help new and recent college grads to start well. If you would like more information or are interested in helping with this program, visit truroanglican.com/fellows or contact Mike Seawright, mseawright@truroanglican.com.

MISSIONS

From Our Mission Partners, Jerry and Stacy Kramer

We are blessed and excited to be Truro's frontline missionaries working in the Islamic World. Wherever we go, at times into dangerous places, we are part of a dynamic community unafraid to take risks. Jesus' own mission was risky. It cost Him everything. Reconciliation is costly. And we all are called to this same mission. Our work in the Middle East and East Africa is part of Truro's passionate commitment to following the way of Jesus.

Truro is an amazing home church for us. You pray for us, visit us, minister with us and invest generously in the mission. Your weekly tithes and offerings are making a huge difference in the world. In the Islamic Revolutionary Republic, where we have lived and served the past four years, we are seeing our "neighbors" fall in love with Jesus, in numbers never seen before. You've helped make this possible in so many ways. You've provided love and encouragement, sent us an Alpha team, and given generously from your budget. John Grimsley from Truro comes to Iraq with us regularly. The picture you see here is John with a Yezidi woman, a victim of ISIS, meeting Jesus for the first time.

One day you'll get to meet your new brothers and sisters in Christ. They will thank you for what you have helped give them—life. Real life. Now and eternally. In the meanwhile, please accept our deepest thanks for all you are doing, walking with us as we walk with Jesus among the least. Reconciliation is risky. And it's worth it.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Want to Learn to Love Like God? Here's How!

The primary way that the Bible describes God's love for us is as a Father loves his children. If you wish to learn to love like God, loving children is a particularly good place to start! Fortunately for you, we have a plethora of opportunities for you to learn to love like God by loving children at Truro. We need adults and/or teenagers to serve in the following ways:

Kids Ministry. Small group leaders during the 9:00 am (4) and 11:15 am (6) services (weekly commitment); Teachers (8) to teach all year during our weekly Discipleship Hour (1 month at a time).

Wee Worship. Leaders (10) to teach or help teach our pre-schoolers (1x/month at one service); Welcome desk volunteers (10) to greet parents and children at the nursery (1x/month at one service).

Youth. Small group leaders (8, especially women) to build relationships with teenagers and help them explore and apply faith (weekly), Sun(s), 6:15 - 8:15 pm.

Squad 5-6. Small group leaders (1 guy, 2 women) to lead small groups for 5th and 6th graders (weekly), Wed(s), 5:00 - 6:00 pm,

Alpha. Adults and/or teens (12) to help run our Kids Olympics program (Fri(s) during Alpha, starting Sep 30).

i If you are open to serving in any of these ways, stop by our table on the patio after the service or email Mary Anne Keena, mkeena@truroanglican.com.

Bob Tate adds: "Folks, your help this fall can make the difference between an 'okay' program and a 'world-class' program for our children. Please step up if you can; we would be very grateful!"

Volunteers for TIPS

TIPS begins Wed, Sep 7. We need a team of volunteers to welcome the nations into our church. Commitment is 1x/week for 2-1/2 hours, in a four-, eight- or 12-week block. No preparation before class is needed. Opportunities include being a conversation partner in a small group, a greeter or a host, and setting up special events like celebrations or local field trips. God has used TIPS at Truro to help the stranger for over 30 years. Be part of this story!
