Singles, Couples, Families—Everyone Is Welcome at Alpha!

Cookout: Fri, Sep 23 | 6:00 pm Course: Fri(s), Sep 30 - Nov 18 | 6:00 pm

Alpha is an open and welcoming place to make friends, ask questions and freely discuss what Christianity is all about. Each night there's food, a talk, and small group time. Everyone is always welcome! Because it's a little difficult for families with kids to try Alpha, this fall we're making it a little easier. We have a GREAT new "Kids Olympics" program for pre-K through 6th grade—games, crafts, stories, and more. We'd love teens to come help with the younger kids, and, of course, we have nursery for the littlest ones. There's a place for everyone at Alpha! Come to our Alpha Cookout to get a taste! And then give Alpha a try at the first session on Sep 30!

TIPS: An International Entry Point into God's Family

by José Garrigó

Serving Internationals is a service to our foreign neighbors. It is learning to love the stranger like God. However, love is a two-way street. As we give, we receive much more. One of our TIPS one-on-one volunteers wrote this:

Today was our last meeting. We exchanged emails, and I hope we will keep up with each other. As we were saying goodbye, I felt a strong urge to pray for him and his family, and asked if I could do that for him. The look on his face brought up strong emotion for me. He looked so absolutely pleased that I asked. I really thought both of us might melt into (manly) tears. It was a moment I will cherish.

Look at the Impact of Your Generous August Giving to Truro

by Bob Tate

Folks—Truro had another super busy month of ministry. Here are some highlights of what your giving enabled Truro to do in August:

- Youth Alpha wound down in August. The Holy Spirit Day Away was particularly powerful. This course hugely blessed those who attended!
- Rev J and his wife S (whose names we can't use for security reasons) wowed us with their tales of healings in Northern Iraq, both in J's preaching and in their forums between services on two Sundays. We support them in their brave outreach to Muslims in Northern Iraq, both with our giving as well as our time, along with visits by a Truro parishioner.

We have wonderful ways that you can experience TIPS:

- Thu, Sep 8 at 7:00 pm: Dr. Julie Stoll presents an interactive session on cross-cultural communication. Dr. Stoll will draw you in to the world of cross-cultural communication and will make you laugh and gain courage. If you interact at all with internationals, you must attend this session!
- Next Sun, Sep 11 after each service: TIPS Open House. Meet some of our team staff and some students in the Reception office. Ask all the questions you want!

i Questions? José Garrigó, jgarrigo@truroanglican.com

GIVING CONTINUED FROM THE PREVIOUS PAGE

- Genesis Arts Camp: This was our biggest Genesis to date, with 300 kids, about 2/3 of whom were non-Truro kids, which means this really turned out to be a HUGE outreach to the local community outside of Truro. Well done everyone!
- We had over 500 people attend our Parish Picnic, and many of those in attendance were from the Genesis experience.
- We sent Erik Garrigó on a missionary trip to the Papua region of Indonesia. It was a powerful experience, touching the lives of many in that region.
- A dozen youth as well as several adult volunteers spent a week in Philadelphia's inner city, working on a large Christian building project that will help many folks in need. Our youth really shined, as they brought the love of Christ to the City of Brotherly Love.

Due to security concerns I cannot reveal too much, but we had a private baptism take place in August for a new international believer. Many tears of joy were shed on that glorious day.

So much happening, and folks—this is Truro's quiet season! Can't wait to see what September brings!

Please note that our Parish Offices will be closed Mon, Sep 5 in observance of Labor Day.
