Look What Impact Your Generous August Giving ($$$) Had!

By Bob Tate

August was another super month at Truro! We had an incredible Genesis Arts Camp, with 250 kids having a blast and learning about Jesus in the process. We ended Genesis week with Genesis Sunday, which included our annual Parish Picnic. We had 450 people there—lots of kids and waterslides. We capped the day off with our fun-filled Youth Water night. What a huge success! And speaking of Truro Youth, they also had a fun-filled day at Kings Dominion. Meanwhile, our Sunday Concert Series did not disappoint, with a U.S. Army Band cellist performing for folks in the Truro Chapel. José Garrigó,

Everyone Can Support Alpha This Fall

Fri(s) Beginning Oct 4 | 7:00 pm | Undercroft

PRAY: Join us in praying for Alpha and for all those that will come.

INVITE: You can also pray for those you might invite. Truro's spirit is one of hospitality, drawing people into the love and community of Jesus. That doesn't happen without your invitations. Who is God prompting you to invite to Alpha?

COME: Come with the friend(s) you've invited! It can be intimidating to step onto a church campus for the first time. You can join your friends for the first night to make sure they feel comfortable and welcome. And if you've never done Alpha, this might be your time.

TIPS also participated in two conversations on racial reconciliation following up on the Emanuel film. Later in the month, TIPS hosted 20 Spanish speakers for a social time at the Garrigó home. August saw us saying goodbye to our three wonderful summer interns, Bridget Baucum, Sydney Bronaugh, and Ben Michelson. They contributed so much, and we were blessed to have them. What a month—can't wait to see what September brings!
