Look What Impact Your Generous September Giving ($$$) Had!

by Bob Tate

September was truly a bellwether month at Truro. After many years of hard work, we officially launched the Truro Institute on September 21, when the board of directors had its first meeting and formally approved the Institute. This has so much promise and is, frankly, so exciting! To help launch the Institute, we had an amazing weekend with Dr. Jaqueline Rivers and her husband, the Rev. Eugene Rivers (now a member of the Institute's board), who helped us dive deeply into the issue of racial reconciliation with their talks on the black family in America. Meanwhile, the ministry of our Truro

GIVING

God Gives to Me at Truro

Jim Robb, Vestry member

Although I do tithe (which means giving 10% of what I have), I've never thought too much about what I give to Truro. Mostly, I think about and praise God for what HE'S DONE FOR ME through our wonderful church. I've met most of the best friends I've ever had at Truro. I'm allowed to sing and praise God in our (super!) choir. I get taught and blessed by the fantastic sermons given by our large team of talented and holy preachers. My weekly Amore group has rejuvenated my walk with the Lord. The group has become family to me. Most of all, when my dear wife Vicki suffered through three years of disease until her death, Truro members gave us meals, tons of prayer support, very palpable love, and they care for me until this day. Even though I give all I can financially, I don't support Truro. It supports me.

international program, TIPS, got off with a bang, with 82 students and eight children coming to Truro to learn English and so much more. Our Kids and Youth programs are all re-launched for the fall, bigger and better than ever. Our amazing Truro choir came back after a wonderful choir retreat energized and growing its members. We also had a wonderful Sunday Concert with our amazing pianist, James Collins. Our Cuba Team regaled Truro folks with their stories of God in action from their trip to Cuba in July at a big missions dinner with over 60 in attendance. Debbie Appleby led our community group leaders in a wonderful fall kick-off as we rev up our community group participation. Finally, we kicked off a new marriage and singles ministry initiative that we think will draw many outside our church to Truro through relationship ministry. Expect to hear more on that in the days ahead. Wow, can't wait to tell you next month about what October has been bringing!

Prayer Magnets: Pray for Our Preschool Families

Everyone at Truro is asked to pick up a magnet with the name of a family from our Truro Preschool and Kingergarten on it after the service today. Put the magnet on your fridge, or wherever you will see it, to remind you to pray regularly for that family during this school year. This is one small way that you can support our preschool in their daily ministry to so many little ones and their families.

i Come to the Family Ministries tent after the service to get your magnet.
