Everyone Can Serve in December

Everybody loves Christmas time at Truro. From Carols by Glowstick, to the beautiful decorations all over campus, to our magnificent Christmas Eve services, December is a magical time to be here. We'll be welcoming lots of people at our big events over the course of the month. To help our visitors feel welcome and have the best possible experience here, everyone can find a place to plug in and be part of it all.

After today's service, go outside to sign up at Randy the Gift-Wrapped Raffle Table (yes, it has a name!). Pick the time/place/role you'd like to serve in. Just for fun, every name on the signup sheets will be entered into a raffle for a special prize!

In just three weeks, our 7th annual Carols by Glowstick will be here! Take a couple with you, and use them to invite others.

i Something new this year: Please RSVP ahead of time at bit.ly/glowsticks2019.

Who Are All These People? Find Out with our Online Directory!

The Truro directory is part of our online congregational portal, InFellowship, so to access it, you need to have an account. If you don't have one yet, it's super easy to set up. Click the InFellowship link at the top of our website homepage or go to tacva.infellowship.com. Click on "Don't have an account? Sign Up." All you need to provide is your name and an email address.

To be able to see the Truro directory, you first have to manually add YOURSELF to the directory—accounts are not automatically included in the directory. Log in, and on the main page, click Privacy Settings. You have total control over who sees which pieces of your personal info. Whatever you designate for "Everyone" will appear in the directory. Drag the sliders on the graph to designate what info you want to share.

At the bottom of this page, in small type, there is a checkbox that says "Include me in the church directory." Click this box to appear in the directory AND to be able to view it.

Save your privacy settings, then click the link for the directory. You will immediately notice all the entries without photos! Photos are what make the directory useful. PLEASE upload a photo to your profile. How? Go to your profile page. Click the box next to your name and upload a headshot. Even easier: grab Karen Rummel if you see her (she has a photo in the directory!) and she can take a photo of you on the spot with her phone and immediately upload it.

i Contact Liz Brewster if you need help at LBrewster@TruroAnglican.com.

Stewardship Season Continues

Pledge cards are a way for you to indicate your giving for next year, both financial and time. If you have not yet turned in a pledge card for 2020, you'll find them in the pew racks. Drop yours in the offering plate, or mail it to the office.

Vestry Candidate Nominations for 2020

Do you know someone who would make a good vestry candidate? Four new vestry members will be elected at Truro's next annual meeting in March 2020. Now is the time to consider, pray, and discern potential vestry candidates. Vestry members serve for a three-year term and are integral to helping Truro support the congregation, staff, and clergy.

i If you would like to nominate someone, please notify Larry Gordon at larry.gordon@cox.net.
