Giving to Truro

by Larry Gordon

As you prayerfully consider your pledge for 2018, please know that your wonderful giving not only supports Truro staff and programs, it also supports many ministries and missionaries—local, national, and global. During a recent missions dinner, we heard from two of our locally supported ministries, the Jail Aftercare Ministry and the Car Ministry. Both have touched the lives of many in this area over many years. A special guest during the dinner was Melissa McKoy, a single mom who has been helped through both ministries! The powerful synergy between these ministries enabled Melissa to find stable housing and employment and to support her family, a powerful witness of Christ's love for the poor in our area. Bless you as you consider your support to this kind of work building the Kingdom!

Welcome, David Pileggi

Rector, Christ Church Jerusalem

We are delighted to welcome David Pileggi to Truro today. David is a great friend of Truro, and has hosted many Truro parishioners and Journey to Jerusalem teams. We are very blessed by his relationship with Truro and excited to continue this partnership when we send a team to Israel in December 2018.

Pilgrims to Poland Will Share Next Week

by Josh Christenson

Sun, Nov 26 | 10:30 am | Undercroft

This past July, four pilgrims accompanied Tory on a historical and spiritual tour of Poland, visiting Krakow, Gdansk, and Sejny. Our pilgrimage brought us to significant sites in Poland's last century: sites of political moment, spiritual value, and, in many cases, the two intermingled. In these places we encountered the history of artists, intellectuals, and people of faith who stewarded Polish culture through the ideological torrents of the 20th century. Both during and after the trip, our group reflected seriously on the questions posed by Polish figures: How do we care for the soul of our culture? And what lessons can Poland teach the Church to promote human flourishing? Please join us between services next Sunday to hear our testimonials.

Alpha

Our next Alpha will begin in January. Keep an eye out for details at truroanglican.com/alpha.

WORSHIP + ARTS

Everyone Serving this December!

After each service today, we invite every member and every family of Truro to find one place to serve this December, as we host thousands of guests at our many services and events throughout Advent and Christmas. Can you bring a plate of cookies to Carols by Glowstick? Can your family usher at one service? Can you help with communion set-up? Can you help our guests find an empty parking spot?

After each of today's services, you won't be able to miss the "EVERYONE SERVING" board. Please sign up for at least one place to serve, and we'll be in touch with you in the coming weeks.

Advent and Christmas Celebrations

Thanksgiving is this week, and December is coming soon! We have a lot of exciting stuff planned for Advent and Christmas, and we thought you'd like some details:

PARISH LIFE

Newcomer Coffee Today

Sun, Nov 19 | 10:30 - 11:00 am
Reception Area in the Parish Office

If you are new to Truro or looking to connect, join us this for our monthly Newcomer Coffee. Hannah King, our Connections Pastor, will be there to welcome you. No agenda, just an opportunity to meet some of the Truro family and ask any questions you may have! If you aren't able to come today, put Dec 17 on your calendar for the next coffee.

📧 Email Hannah King, our Connections Pastor, for more info at hking@truroanglican.com.

Have You Noticed?

We've made some improvements to our audiovisual systems in the Sanctuary. New speakers have been hung, providing equal coverage and better EQ across the room, allowing you to better hear the good news of Jesus Christ spoken and sung. We have installed new and brighter projectors, making it easier for you to read the lyrics and see the videos that help us celebrate what God has done and is doing. We've also made the platform a more efficient space for the convergence of music, liturgy, tradition, innovation, and instrumentation that we enjoy here at Truro. In the weeks to come, we'll be addressing our aging wireless infrastructure and transept speakers. We'll keep making all the adjustments and improvements needed to help us all sing "the glories of our God and King, and the triumphs of his grace."

TIPS

Trip to Guantánamo Planned for 2018

We are already making preparations for our ministry in Guantánamo, Cuba, for July 7-16, 2018! We are very excited to visit our friends again. Among other things, we will be partnering with Todos Los Santos church in Guantánamo to put on a three-day youth camp for dozens of students. If you are interested in coming, an application to be part of the team can be found on the City at this link: goo.gl/WEVHzt.

i To submit an application or ask a question, email Jason LaLone (jlalone@truroanglican.com) or Julie Meadows (jmeadows@truroanglican.com). Dios te bendiga.

Hannah and Michael King Are Being Ordained!

Tue, Dec 5 | 7:00 pm | Chapel

Bishop John Guernsey is coming to Truro to ordain Michael and Hannah King as transitional deacons in the Anglican Church. This is the culmination of a several-year discernment process between the Kings, Truro, and God. We are excited for them to take this step of obedience on the path to priestly ministry and would love to have you attend this special service.
