

2025 - 2026

Annual Report

Dear Truro family,

"Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!" (Philippians 1:2)

This is Truro's first annual report in many years, and I'm glad we can put it in your hands. You've given generously of your time, your prayers, and your resources, and it's a joy to show you how God has used them. We have so much to thank God for as a church, and this report helps us do just that.

In the pages that follow you'll find ministries, photographs, numbers, names, stories, and snapshots, celebrating what God has done among us from September 2025 through August 2026. You'll read about babies cared for, students discipled, the sick visited, international neighbors welcomed, and coffee brewed. You'll be reminded of God's faithfulness and provision to us in so many ways.

So, before you turn the page, let me encourage you to read this report as much more than just a list of activities, programs, and other things that we do. This isn't a record of what we've accomplished. It's a celebration of what God has been doing among us and through us!

Peter writes that we are "a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light" (1 Peter 2:9). Every ministry, every event, every table set up, and everything else recorded in these pages exists for that reason.

We aren't a perfect church. The perfect church doesn't exist on earth. But we are a family, built by Jesus, on Jesus, and held together in Jesus. We're a family of different ages, backgrounds, and personalities, and we belong to one another because we belong to him.

What a great joy and what a high calling to be the community of the church of God.

Your brother,

Jamie

Table of Contents

“For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.”

1 Corinthians 3:11

OUR FOUNDATION

The foundation of this church is Jesus Christ. All that we do is built upon and held together by him. Upon this unshakable foundation, the structure and ministries of Truro are all supported by four pillars.

THE WORD

We are a people of the Word of God, believing in its power and sufficiency to establish and shape us in Christ. (2 Timothy 3:16–17)

WORSHIP

We are a people centered around the good news of Jesus, exalting him not only with our lips but in our lives. (Colossians 3:16–17)

COMMUNITY

We are being built up as a spiritual house, called to proclaim the excellencies of him who called us out of darkness into his marvelous light. (1 Peter 2:9)

OUTREACH

We have been reconciled to God through Christ, and have been made ambassadors for him wherever we go. (2 Corinthians 5:18–20)

These four pillars have marked Truro for generations, and they will continue to shape the year ahead. As we look forward, we’re not searching for something new. We’re building on what is true. Jesus Christ is our foundation, and our calling has not changed: We’re a people celebrating and proclaiming the good news of the gospel.

WORSHIP

We are a worshipping people because we are a redeemed people. Our vibrant, varied style is distinct and rich, and this past year we've seen even more people drawn into it.

SUNDAY MORNINGS

An average Sunday morning at Truro takes about 70 volunteers plus our clergy and staff. From Lay Eucharistic Ministers to Sunday school teachers to sound engineers and ushers - our congregation steps up to fill our sanctuary with praise.

HIGHLIGHTS

Approximately 700 members with a weekly average attendance of 450, a 12% increase from last year. 50 children in our nest and children's ministry, 14 baptisms, 20 confirmations and receptions, 20 Truro Dancers, 25 Choir members. Over 1,000 people worshipped with us on Easter, and over 1,200 joined us on Christmas Eve!

THE ARTS

We welcomed Dr. Ryan Shelton as our new Director of Worship, providing vision and leadership to our corporate worship life. We've begun the relaunch of our Truro Choral Scholars Program – which will provide scholarships for GMU students who will serve as section leaders in our choir. We've also resumed our Recital Series that helps raise funds for those scholarships.

"I wish everyone at Truro could take a turn experiencing a worship service from my view at the piano. Looking out and seeing the faces of God's people responding in worship to the glories of the gospel is truly the best seat in the house."

Ryan Shelton

"Oh, magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together!"

Psalm 34:3

COMMUNITY LIFE & DISCIPLESHIP

As members of the body of Christ, we are a community held together by Jesus. Together, we're brothers and sisters who belong to the same spiritual family. Whether we gather in homes, community groups, Sunday School, Bible Studies, volunteer teams, or in the lighthearted connection of Community Nights or Supper Club, our congregation is alive with friendship and connection that helps make a big church feel small. Throughout this ministry year, we hosted over 1,500 events (not including Sunday services!).

COMMUNITY NIGHTS

Our monthly Community Nights (that turn weekly throughout Lent), are wonderful times of laughter, camaraderie, and connection. Between these and other events, we served well over 10,000 plates this ministry year!

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

About 30 of you met weekly for adult Sunday School, covering topics like the Nicene Creed, First Corinthians, and the Minor Prophets, led by the Rev. Chris Hammond and other lay and clergy faculty. We offered discipleship classes during our Community Nights during Lent and the Easter season to provide opportunities to grow deeper in the word and consider together what it means to follow Jesus.

"I am so grateful for this ministry group. It has taught me a lot and brought me closer to Christ. Thank you so much for an amazing year!"

MEN'S/WOMEN'S MINISTRY

There are times when it's good to provide community-building and discipleship opportunities for men and women separately. Alongside several men's and women's small groups, here are some highlights from this ministry year!

Men's Breakfasts: where we gather to learn from each other and fellowship together.

Men's Retreat: Last November about 50 Truro men came together for a great weekend of worship, study and friendship, where we heard from Steve Cannizzaro on "The Road Ahead".

Heartshapers and the Thursday morning women's Bible study: across two groups, about 30 women meet faithfully (with childcare!) for busy moms and other Truro women to study together.

In the Vineyard: our monthly women's evening discipleship class, attended by nearly 100 of you!

COMMUNITY GROUPS

About 250 people are regularly involved in community groups, whether meeting weekly in homes, our Young Families Supper Club that meets at Truro, our new Young Adults (20s and 30s) group, or our weekly Seniors Lunch, our community is regularly meeting together for prayer, study, and fun.

KIDS & YOUTH

Children at Truro are loved and discipled through weekly programming, fun events, and a group of staff and volunteers dedicated to forming our children into followers of Jesus. Truro Preschool & Kindergarten (TPK) provides a safe and Jesus-centered academic environment for children in our community. Some highlights from this year:

THE NEST

Nearly fifty babies and toddlers came through the Nest this year! Our youngest members are loved and shepherded on Sunday mornings.

TRURO KIDS

Through weekly Sunday School, events like Pizza on the Playground, and our annual VBS, our children K-6th are thriving. More than 70 kids and 65 dedicated volunteer crew members launched into an unforgettable week at our "Stellar" Vacation Bible School.

TRURO YOUTH

Through weekly youth group meetings, social events like bowling, pool parties, and rafting trips, and our annual winter retreat - Breakaway - about 30 of our young people are encountering God, building community, and studying the Word together. After the retreat, a student shared: "I think the Lord was showing me how to live for him through that weekend and even at my house and school which was something I think I have been looking for."

TRURO PRESCHOOL & KINDERGARTEN

This past ministry year we served 120 students ages 2 - Kindergarten. Our team of 28 staff across 9 classrooms cultivate delightful, Jesus-filled environments for children to grow and learn.

OVERHEARD AT TRURO

"I have experienced God's love through my child who has had a difficult time in social situations and making friends, but feels welcome and that he belongs here."
Truro Kids Parent

"What comes to mind are... moments like when a child asks a question about God. Another remembers a Bible verse from the week before. Moments like when we ask the class if anyone has a prayer request, and children pray for everything you could imagine. These kids are learning that they can bring anything to God in prayer."
Truro Kids Volunteer

"We do not go to church. We do not pray as a family. But my son has been inviting me to pray with him. Any time he sees someone hurt, he asks me to pray with him. This is new for me, and was a bit uncomfortable at first. But as he kept prompting, I began to lean in. And it has become a beautiful new rhythm for us. I'm so grateful he is learning how to talk to God at school. And while I feel sadness that he won't have chapel or teacher-led conversations about God at his next school, I can see how this foundation has already taken root. It has not only impacted him, but our whole family."
Truro Preschool & Kindergarten Parent

OUTREACH

"How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news..." Isaiah 52:7

Individually, every member of this church has been entrusted by God with the ministry of reconciliation (2 Corinthians 5:18–19). We do this simply by extending the good news of the gospel of Jesus where we are. How beautiful in the neighborhoods, and offices, and schools, and family gatherings, are the feet of those who bring good news.

Corporately, our ministry of outreach is demonstrated locally, domestically, and globally. At Truro, we do that by serving the people and nations right around us, and that have come to our doorstep. We also support a variety of mission partners here and abroad.

TIPS

Truro International Programs and Services (TIPS), a ministry arm of Truro, served 303 students from over 40 countries this past ministry year through ESOL classes, Conversation & Culture classes, Exploring Faith classes, Conversation Partners, Culture Days, and three different Bible studies, including one in Spanish and one in Chinese - all with the help of 85 volunteers. TIPS is a family, a tight-knit and welcoming community for those who have had to leave family and home behind. Watching the friendships and connections form between people from vastly different backgrounds, both culturally and socio-economically, is a beautiful thing and an embodiment of God's love. TIPS truly is "Truro's bridge to the International community!"

MISSION PARTNERS

We give $147,000 annually to 18 different mission partners located here in Fairfax, throughout the United States, and overseas.

Local Partner Spotlight: The Lamb Center
Founded out of Truro in 1992, the Lamb Center is a day-time drop-in center for people experiencing homelessness. It is our joy to support them as they serve our neighbors in need while sharing God's love!

Domestic Partner Spotlight: ARDF
Our partnership with the Anglican Relief and Development Fund continued this year with a service trip to Black Mountain, NC, where a team of Truro members helped rebuild homes devastated by flooding.

International Partners:
We support 8 missionaries in 8 countries.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM TIPS

A Muslim woman has been attending the woman's Bible study led by Libby Cannizarro and also attended Christmas Eve services.

An Iranian woman (Muslim) has now attended Exploring Faith for at least 3 years. She and her adult son came to Truro to pray for Iran because this was the place to go for effective prayers.

Multiple Chinese students show indications of growing closer to God through Exploring Faith, Mike Sikorski's Chinese Bible study, and Brad Brewster's International Bible study Spanish-speaking Bible study is thriving, with 10-15 students attending regularly and many showing signs of growing in their faith and understanding of God.

One Hispanic man has asked for prayer multiple times for his sick mother and has had our prayer team pray with her over the phone. He is growing in his faith in very clear and evident ways, assisted by discipleship from Nahiroby.

One of our Ukrainian students, who was a professional pianist and piano teacher in Ukraine, started playing duets with Mary Huttar after class. Ryan Shelton heard them one day and asked her to play with the choir and occasionally before and after worship services. The joy and pride that this has brought to this woman are heart-warming!

One of our volunteers has been helping students with resumes and interview skills, and several have found jobs!

"I bless each volunteer for the love with which they teach us. After each class, I go and kneel down and thank God for each one of them. I love them so much because, in the middle of my loneliness, I found this beautiful family."

OPERATIONS

OUR MINISTRY YEAR BUDGET

Truro operates on a calendar year budget, meaning a ministry year (September - August) crosses through two budget years.

For 2026, Truro has budgeted revenue and offsetting expenses of $3.3M. Through August 31, 2026, our revenue received is $2.3M and our expenses incurred are $2.4M.

Thank you for your generous and sacrificial giving! Truro's finances are strong. We were tremendously blessed in the last year by God's faithfulness and your giving. Thank you for your continued partnership with Truro and its ministries with your giving of time, talents and treasure.

Gratefully,
Truro Finance Team

FACILITIES

The Lord has been faithful in providing for several unplanned facility expenses, including the clean-up and repairs from the flood in our preschool building, repairs to the chiller behind the kitchen, annual painting of one-third of the church, and fixing the steps and the brickwork at the front of the building.

"The operations team at Truro works behind the scenes... they are the ones making sure the heat is on, the doors open, the walks are salted, and the lunch is ready. I am so grateful for the staff who make all of this run so smoothly, and manage to make it fun and edifying, too. I think I can speak for all the staff when I say that we are also grateful to our congregation. We appreciate the way people jump in when chairs and tables need moved, when they wash dishes or empty trash cans, or pray for the staff when asked. It is a joy and a privilege to be a part of this team, and this community of believers." — Daria Brown

LOOKING AHEAD

Dear Truro family,

Thank you. As you've seen in these pages, God has been at work among us this year, and so much of that work has come through your faithfulness: your prayers, your service, your generosity, and your presence week after week.

As we step into a new ministry year, our hope isn't in new programs or ideas. Our hope is in the same Lord who has carried us this far. So, let's keep the main thing the main thing: glorifying Jesus as he draws people to himself. And let's pray that our roots continue to go down deeper in him as we build our lives together on Christ and in Christ.

This means caring for one another as a church family. It means welcoming the many new faces God is bringing to Truro and making room for them, so that every person here knows they are known. It means more opportunities to grow as disciples of Jesus, especially through community groups meeting in homes across Northern Virginia. And it means asking God for a growing heart for the people around us who need to hear the gospel and need Jesus in their lives.

None of this happens without your partnership in the gospel. Through your giving, the ministries of Truro continue to thrive and expand, and we look ahead in faith to the future of this campus.

We don't know everything the coming year holds for us as a church, but we know the one who is building us and holding us together. Let's walk forward with confidence and expectation, celebrating and proclaiming the good news of the gospel.

Your brother,

Jamie
